

Shoalhaven Youth Orchestra Inc.

Proudly supported by Shoalhaven Arts Board

Shoalhaven Youth Orchestra Inc.

Child Safety Policy

1. Context

- 1.1. Shoalhaven Youth Orchestra (SYO) is committed to maintaining a positive environment for its students to achieve musical and educational excellence through a structured program of musical training and performance.
- 1.2. Our highest priority is the safety and wellbeing of our players.
- 1.3. The SYO acknowledges that the parents/guardians of its players have primary responsibility. We ask that parents/guardians actively and honestly communicate with SYO about any issues or concerns.

2. Aims

- 2.1. This child safety policy aims to:
  - Create a safe learning environment for all participants
  - Provide clarity to staff, parents and volunteers about their responsibilities and to promote a mutually respectful and safe environment
  - Provide a clear and consistent pathway for dealing with issues compromising the safety and wellbeing of staff, volunteers, parents, and students

Ensure that SYO is compliant with current child protection regulation and ensure that all staff, tutors and volunteers have been vetted and received their Working with Children Check prior to commencing employment or involvement with SYO.

3. Application

- 3.1. This policy and its related documentation apply to all staff, volunteers and students.
- 3.2. All participants, parents/guardians, volunteers and staff are expected to comply with the SYO code of conduct.
- 3.3. This policy applies for all involved parties during:
  - Weekly orchestral rehearsals
  - Overnight camps
  - Day camps
  - Tours
  - Events
  - Concerts
  - Tutoring
  - Any breaks during rehearsals, camps, tours, workshops, concerts, and events

4. Duty of care

- 4.1. The SYO is responsible for the wellbeing of young people whilst under its care. The wellbeing and safety of students is the primary concern of the SYO.
- 4.2. This responsibility extends to all staff, volunteers, parents and contractors.
- 4.3. SYO maintains a safe environment through required pre-employment checks and screening.
- 4.4. SYO requires its staff to read and agree to the terms of both the SYO Child Safety policy and SYO Code of Conduct.

Shoalhaven Youth Orchestra Inc.

Proudly supported by Shoalhaven Arts Board

- 4.5. It is the responsibility of the parent/guardian of students under the age of 18 to assure that they arrive safely and are picked up safely from the rehearsal venue.

5. Parents and Participants

- 5.1. SYO will communicate with participants and parents/guardians about our expectations and their role and responsibilities under the Child Safety policy and related guidelines and procedures.
- 5.2. Participants and their parents/guardians are encouraged to raise issues with SYO staff, who have clear pathways of resolution for issues.

6. Working with Children Checks

- 6.1. SYO is responsible for ensuring that all staff, volunteers and contractors are appropriately screened through reference to Working with Children Checks.
- 6.2. Under the Child Protection (Prohibited Employment) Act, 1998 and Commission for Children and Young People Act, 1998 SYO is required to obtain Working with Children Checks for all staff, contractors directly engaged with children and young people.

7. Reporting

- 7.1. If a parent, volunteer, student, staff member or contractor suspects a child is at risk of significant harm, they are required to report this to the SYO Orchestra Manager or educational staff.
- If you think the child/ young person is in immediate danger, phone '000' immediately.
  - Report incidence or suspicion of significant harm to SYO Orchestra Manager or educational staff member
  - On receipt of such a report Managerial and educational staff are required to call the child protection helpline on 132 111 as a member of the general public.
  - Have these or as many details as possible when calling the Helpline:
    - Child/young person details – Name, address, D.O.B., siblings
    - Incident details – Date, type of risk, person/s causing or contributing to harm
    - Impact of the incident on the child/young person
    - Network of support around the child/young person
    - Your personal and contact details
    - Interpreter/ support requirement: whether a language or sign interpreter may be required, whether a support is required for a person with a disability or an Aboriginal agency is involved
    - Child protection will send a summary of the report with a case reference number which will be kept on file at SYO.
- 7.2. SYO will keep appropriate records of all incidents reported by staff, volunteers, students, parents and contractors including the child protection summary. This information will be kept private except for purposes of reporting harm.

8. Responsibility

- 8.1 It is the responsibility of the Orchestra Manager to ensure that this policy is implemented in SYO's day to day activities. The Committee will seek assurance from the Orchestra Manager/Manager once a year on this point.

Shoalhaven Youth Orchestra Inc.

Proudly supported by Shoalhaven Arts Board

Revised – 17/04/2018 Nick Minogue, President – Shoalhaven Youth Orchestra Inc.